Grandfather’s birthday party.

Last week, we had a birthday party for my grandfather. It was held at our home. The money for the party was contributed by different relatives. My father bought my grandfather a suit while my mother baked a cake for him.

Food was prepared by the family. A cow was slaughtered by uncle Kwizera and Uncle Gashumba. They were assisted by two other neighbours. The bananas were peeled by my cousins and the water for cooking was fetched by my sisters. Millet was prepared by aunt Gladys and Aunt Carol. The tents were put up by the decorators who made all the other arrangements too.

All the grandchildren entertained the guests. Speeches were made and the most interesting one was my grandmother’s. The prayers were led by Reverend Father Gatera from Nyamugera Parish. It was a wonderful party which was attended by almost all our relatives. It is our biggest wish that we shall celebrate grandfather’s next birthday when he returns ninety.

The last speech was from the grandchildren. It was given by my sister, Neza. We said the most interesting things about our grandfather. We explained how we enjoy the story telling time by fire side every evening and the yellow bananas he gives us every Sunday morning. Most of all, we enjoy the words of wisdom that he always shares with us before prayers as we prepared to go to sleep.

We love our grandfather.
